

Main recommendations

The report by the Constitutional Commission reviewing the elected presidency was released yesterday

ELIGIBILITY

Responsibility while in private sector

Before

Chairman/CEO

$100
MILLION

Paid-up capital

Chairman/CEO of company with at least $100 million in paid-up capital

After

Most senior executive

$500
MILLION

Shareholders' equity

Most senior executive of company with at least $500 million in shareholders' equity

MINORITY REPRESENTATION

To reserve the presidential election for a racial group if it is not represented for five terms

Term 1

Term 2

Term 3

Term 4

Term 5

For example, if there has not been a president from one racial group for five terms, then the sixth term will be reserved for candidates from that group

Term 6

If no eligible candidates step forward from that group, the election would be opened to candidates of all races, and the "reserved election" would be deferred to the next presidential election

COMPOSITION AND ROLE OF THE COUNCIL OF PRESIDENTIAL ADVISERS

Composition

Before

The CPA consists of six members and two alternate members

After

Two additional members to be appointed to the CPA

Consulting the CPA

President consults CPA on some matters relating to past reserves and key public service appointments

President consults CPA for all monetary issues related to reserves and all key public service appointments

The commission has also recommended changes to how Parliament can override the president, if he acts against the CPA's advice.