

Passing on the family business a top worry among founders

13%

Will sell the business if the next generation does not wish to join

38%

Will coerce /pressure their children to take over the family business

50%

Willing to hire from outside but only until a family member is ready to take over