

Our Malaysian GE team

The Straits Times will travel across Malaysia to report on the general election.

Straits Times foreign editor Zakir Hussain will lead the paper's coverage with Malaysia bureau chief Shannon Teoh, as well as South-east Asia editor Reme Ahmad and assistant foreign editor Lim Ai Leen.

Malaysia correspondents Trinna Leong and Nadirah H. Rodzi will cover developments in and around KL and Selangor.

Regional correspondent Arlina Arshad will follow the action in Kedah.

Veteran regional correspondent Leslie Lopez will offer his insights on developments and travel to Sabah.

Senior correspondent Zaihan Mohamed Yusof and regional correspondent Charissa Yong will cover Johor.

Photojournalists Kua Chee Siong and Ariffin Jamar and others will also be on the ground.

Check out microsite str.sg/malaysiaGE for comprehensive coverage of the elections, including multimedia features such as interactive graphics and photo galleries.

Sign up for a free newsletter for weekly highlights at str.sg/AsiaReportNewsletter

For the latest updates, follow us on Twitter @STForeigndesk and Facebook facebook.com/STAsiaReport