

Two line alignment options

The completion of site investigations is the first step in assessing the two options. One goes directly underneath the Central Catchment Nature Reserve, while the other skirts around it.

