

Suspicious devices intercepted

At least nine packages have been mailed to prominent Democrats, Trump critics and CNN since Monday.

George Soros

Oct 22, Monday

New York

- The first bomb is detected in a package sent to the home of billionaire activist George Soros.

Robert De Niro

Thursday

New York

- A package addressed to actor Robert De Niro is found at a property he owns in Manhattan's Tribeca neighbourhood.

Thursday

Delaware

- A suspected bomb sent to former vice president Joe Biden is found at a mail facility in Delaware.

Joe Biden

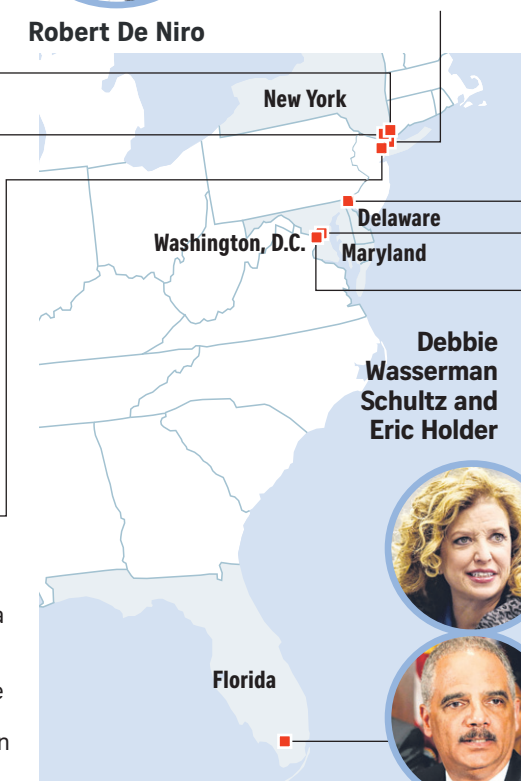

Hillary Clinton

Tuesday

New York

- The Secret Service intercepts a package addressed to former secretary of state Hillary Clinton at the home she shares with her husband, former president Bill Clinton.

Wednesday

Maryland

- Prominent African-American Democrat Maxine Waters is sent at least two suspicious packages, including one in Los Angeles.

Maxine Waters

Wednesday

Washington, D.C.

- A package addressed to former president Barack Obama is intercepted.

Barack Obama

Wednesday

Florida

- A package is discovered at Democratic Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz's office, addressed to former attorney-general Eric Holder.

John Brennan

Wednesday

New York

- CNN evacuates its New York bureau after a pipe bomb and an envelope of white powder are found in the mailroom addressed to former CIA director John Brennan.